Ananda Washington Healing Prayer Network

“I am submerged in eternal Light. It permeates all the particles of my being. I am living in that Light. The Divine Spirit fills me within and without “ - Paramhansa Yogananda

About Healing Prayers

As part of his work to guide people in their spiritual practices, Paramhansa Yogananda, author of the spiritual classic, Autobiography of a Yogi, taught specific techniques for awakening healing energy within each individual. These techniques have been found to overcome physical, emotional, and spiritual difficulties including serious illnesses. He emphasized that we should use our God-given powers to heal ourselves and others, but not think of them as our own powers.

Yogananda's healing techniques employ “...the scientific use of concentration and affirmations for healing inharmonies of body, mind and soul through reason, will, feeling and prayer.” He stated that darkness cannot remain where the Light is present. Attuning ourselves to God’s Light (that which is present in every atom of creation) through meditation, prayer, affirmation, and other means can drive away the darkness of disease in a person’s body, mind and soul.

Yogananda recommended that we approach God as His child, not as a beggar, and we should demand as our divine birthright that He listen to our prayers. We should keep on praying with unceasing devotion and faith until all our doubts fall away and we feel Divine Joy permeating our entire being. Then, we know that God is responding to our prayers and He will heal us according to divine will in the way that is needed for our highest good.

Healing prayers are sent to others by drawing on the unlimited divine energy available to all of us and projecting it to the person in need.

Healing Prayer Network

Ananda has established a Healing Prayer Ministry with a corps of more than 600 volunteers worldwide who pray for those in need. Locally, we have more than 40 people who are a part of our prayer network, including 5 people who pray for our animal friends. You may request prayers for yourself or others. You are also invited to become a member of the Healing Prayer Network. You would receive names of people to pray for on a monthly basis.

Healing Prayer Circles are held once a month after Sunday Service. All are invited to attend them to pray for others or to ask for prayers. Please ask about, or see the schedule, for the date.

Requesting Prayers

“The instrument is blessed by that which flows through it.” - Paramhansa Yogananda

We pray for others in our group meditations and services, as well as in our individual meditation practice. If you, or a loved one, are in need of healing prayers, contact us by email: prayer@anandawashington.org, or by phone 425-806-3700.
Healing at a Distance

Find a quiet place to pray. Sit up straight and concentrate with eyes closed gazing at the spiritual eye (the point between the eyebrows). At that point, visualize the person you are sending the healing energy to. Do not think of the condition or illness that is holding the person back but feel the perfect healing power and Light that is within all of us expanding within that person.

Gently tense and relax both arms. Feel the energy flowing down your arms into your hands. Rub each forearm briskly. Finally, rub your hands together briskly until you can feel a magnetic charge. Hold your hands up with palms facing out. Feel the Light blessing the person you are praying for, for body, mind and soul. (You may chant “Aum” 3 x mentally or aloud.)

Alternatively you may do this prayer:

“Divine Mother, Thou art omnipresent, Thou art in all Thy children. Thou art in [person’s name]. Manifest Thy healing presence in his body, mind and soul.”

Rub your hands briskly... Hold your hands up with palms facing out, and chant “Aum” 3 times.
